

DRAMATIC SCENE. THE EMPRESS ILL.

Defendant Youtsey Apparently
Lost His Reason and Acted Like Mad in Court.

HE STRIKE: "GOEBEL IS NOT DEAD."

Defied Arthur Goebel on the Witness Stand and Cried: "There's No Blood on My Hands."

The Prisoner Battled With the Officers and Was Carried to His Cell—The Court Adjourned
Until Wednesday.

Georgetown, Ky., Oct. 10.—One of the most remarkable scenes ever enacted in a Kentucky court room took place Tuesday night in the Youtsey trial, with the defendant himself as the chief participant. The court room was crowded to the walls with Georgetown's best people at the time and the excitement was intense beyond description. Doc Armstrong, the Louisville detective, had just told of his talks with Youtsey before and after his arrest. Then Arthur Goebel was put on the stand and Judge Ben Williams, who for the first time appeared for the prosecution, did the questioning.

Arthur Goebel said: "I talked with Youtsey the day he was arrested late in the afternoon in the jail in Frankfort in reference to the murder of my brother."

Youtsey Contradicted Arthur Goebel.
Just at this point Youtsey arose behind his attorneys and in a loud voice said: "It is untrue—it is a lie—I never spoke a word to that man in my life, nor to me."

Col. Crawford told him to be quiet and sit down and others took hold of him. "I will not sit down," he said, and a word to that man—it is untrue. He was shouting by this time and every one was on their tiptoes of excitement. Youtsey's wife sprang to his side and while endeavoring to make him sit down could be heard saying: "Now you have killed my husband. I suppose you are satisfied. Then Youtsey hysterically shouted again: "I am innocent—there is no blood on my hands—these men are sweating my life away."

Arthur Goebel meanwhile sat sphinx-like in the witness chair and by turns turned his head either way. Finally after Youtsey was forced into a seat he shouted again: "Goebel is not dead—all the demons in hell could not kill him."

Threatened With Handcuffs.
"Mr. Sheriff, if the defendant does not behave himself, put handcuffs on him," said Judge Williams, who by the audience could not be forced to keep their seats and until the judge threatened to fine those who stood up. Youtsey settled himself down, crossed his eyes and seemed in a state of collapse. He waved his handkerchief above his head in an aimless sort of way and groaned and cried hysterically. Finally quiet was restored and Judge Williams asked Arthur Goebel another question, when Col. Crawford arose and asked on account of the defendant's condition. The request was granted and court adjourned.

Youtsey still occupied his chair, with eyes closed, apparently in a half fainting condition. After the crowd passed out Jailer Reed and deputies carried Youtsey to his cell, where he was unable to walk. Various reasons are assigned for his unseemly break, the first being that his long confinement and strain of the trial caused him to become hysterical and known as himself. Another is that he is really demented as shown by his remark that Goebel is not dead. He is being attended by physicians and kept at the jail and his condition is deemed critical.

THE INSURANCE FRAUD.

Confession of Detective Smiley Made Public—The Three Conspirators
Were to Divide the Money.

Chicago, Oct. 10.—Detective Frank Smiley's confession of the details of the insurance fraud conspiracy that brought an untimely and tragic death to Marie A. Defenbach, was made public Tuesday at the county jail where he is confined with F. Wayland Brown and Dr. August M. Unger, the other alleged conspirators.

In his confession Smiley says that Unger and Brown had arranged to give the insurance and that they were to divide it. Unger was to receive $5,000, Brown was to take $2,000, Smiley asserts that he was only a tool in the plot and that all he was to receive was $1,000 from Brown for allowing himself to be known as the intended husband of Miss Defenbach.

PAO TING FU EXPEDITION NOT READY

No Formal Action Was Taken by the United States Government on the French Note.

The Constitutional Questions, Involved Require Further Time for Consideration—A New Suggestion Made.

Peking, Thursday, Oct. 4.—The Pao Ting Fu expedition is waiting for the Germans who are not ready to start. It is reported that there are 12,000 Chinese imperial troops at Pao Ting Fu.

Gen. Chaffee has returned here. Peking, Sunday, Oct. 7, via Tientsin, Monday, Oct. 8, and Shanghai, Oct. 9.—Trustworthy Chinese reports say that the dowager empress is seriously ill at Tai-Yuan-Fu (province of Shan-shi), and the free hand of the emperor's advisers of state is regarded as contrary to these reports.

No Answer to the French Note.
Washington, Oct. 10.—This, the French charge d'affaires, called on Secretary Hay late in the day, but learned that final action had not been taken on the French note and that it would be some days before the response would be ready. The constitutional questions involved require further time for consideration.

In a high diplomatic quarter the suggestion was made Tuesday that the powers send a special envoy to Sian-fu, the new abode of the empress, with a view to securing the return of the emperor to Peking and giving guarantees for the personal safety of the imperial household. Such an envoy, it is suggested, could accomplish much more than the circuitous negotiations through Chinese officials. The suggestion was also made that Chan Chi Tung, the Chinese agent, be sent to Sian-fu, as he would be well qualified to execute such a mission if the powers could be brought together in a collective request.

A JOINT MEMORIAL.

Certain Chinese Officials, Threatened to Resign Unless the Imperial Court Returns to the Capital.

Shanghai, Oct. 10.—The Chinese agent at the government of Shan-Tung and the Ang-Tse viceroys have sent a joint memorial to the empress demanding it to be impossible to guarantee the safety of the emperor and his family to Sian-fu and threaten to resign unless the court returns to Peking.

Li Hung Chang's secretary reports that the emperor is expected to return to Peking on the ground that the powers can stop supplies from reaching the province of Shen-Si.

and All Were Well Aboard.

New York, Oct. 10.—News two days later than any previous information has been received from the Peary relief steamship Windward in a letter written by Capt. Samuel W. Bartlett to a friend in this city under the date of August 10.

Capt. Bartlett stated that he had arrived at Godhavn on that date and that all were well aboard. Half the distance of the voyage from Sidney had been accomplished under sail. He expressed the anticipation of a good run to Cape York, and is hopeful of finding Peary there.

A THREE DAYS' FIGHT.

London, Oct. 10.—The Times publishes the following dispatch from Vredfort, Orange River Colony: "The British column had a three days' fight, from October 7 to October 9, with the Boers. The Boers were in the number of 1,000 men and five guns. It took place in a fertile area of mountains near here. The Boers were victorious and dispersed, and they fled demoralized. The British casualties were slight."

FAMINE CONDITIONS DISAPPEARING.

London, Oct. 10.—Lord George Hamilton, secretary of state for India, has received the following dispatch from the viceroy of India, Lord Curzon, of Kedleston: "The general condition of the country is excellent and except in a part of Bombay, famine conditions are disappearing. The total number on the relief list has fallen to 2,745,000."

TRANSPORTS ARRIVE AT MANILA.

Washington, Oct. 10.—The transport ship reported to the war department Tuesday that the transports Asocera and Argyle arrived at Manila on the 7th inst. Light Batteries and other troops in this city took command, were on the Rose-grove, having sailed from San Francisco on the 3d of September.

Declare No Further Concessions

MINERS MUST TAKE IT OR LEAVE IT

Ten Per Cent. Increase Means Every Man Will Get $1.10 for Work for Which He Received $1.

The Powder Item Is Simply a Matter of Subtraction—It Means That He Will Receive a Decrease of 7 Per Cent.
in the Cost of the Explosive.

Seranton, Pa., Oct. 10.—Interview with prominent operators here Tuesday elicited a uniform declaration that no further concessions or modifications of the present offer will be made and that the miners must take it or leave it just as it stands.

They say it is plain and complete and contains all they can or will concede. The 10 per cent. increase means that every man in the anthracite mines is to have $1.10 for the work for which he formerly received $1, the operators say. The powder item is simply a matter of book-keeping. Instead of giving the miners 10 per cent. increase that he will have his credit side increased say 3 per cent. and from his debit side will be subtracted 7 per cent. or what ever percentage of expense it is found the difference in the cost of his powder amounts to.

The purpose is simply to put an end to the howling about powder being sold at exorbitant prices. Powder is the basis of the wage scale, and to decrease its cost is to increase the wages. In this region a decrease of $1.25 in a keg of powder means a 7 per cent. decrease in the miner's expenses. Therefore, if he has his expenses reduced 7 per cent., he has his wages increased like amount. The other 3 per cent. will be made up by increasing the al-

The consensus of opinion has been that the disappearing gun carriage was good for low sites, but the majority seemed to think it was not best for high sites.

The action of the board, if sustained by the secretary of war, will be of far reaching importance in the future of coast defenses.

REFUSED TO ANSWER.

Forty or Fifty Persons Were Arrested for Not Replying to Canvass Enumerators' Questions.

Washington, Oct. 10.—Information has been received at the census office which shows that 40 or 50 persons throughout the United States have been arrested for refusing to reply to questions of census enumerators. When the bill making an appropriation for the census was passed a penalty clause was embodied in it providing for a fine of not to exceed $100 in case of any one refusing to answer questions of enumerators.

While 40 to 50 arrests were made on over half a dozen fines were imposed, and those were small amounts, for the reason that when the situation of a court trial was faced by the culprit they decided it would be better to answer the enumerators' questions.

In the cases of those who never did reply to the schedule of questions because they regarded it as an invasion of their privacy, information was obtained from some other source by the enumerators.

HIS ANNUAL REPORT.

Judge Advocate General Lemley Renews the Recommendations
Heretofore Made.

Washington, Oct. 10.—The annual report of Judge Advocate Gen. Lemley to the secretary of the navy is in the main made up of a renewal of recommendations heretofore made for the enactment of legislation for the relief of sailors erroneously charged with desertion, compelling civilian testimony before naval courts, permitting the use of depositions before such courts, consolidating examining and retiring boards, and providing a modern system of classification for naval vessels. Emphasis is laid upon the fact that while such legislation would result advantageously to the department and the service generally, no expense would be involved.

RIVER NEWS.

The Florence Marmet, the old Ark, is receiving her finishing touches, and is now one of the prettiest towboats on the river.

The river is almost down to the point where fishermen may begin to smoke the catfish out of hollow logs in the bottom of it.

The transfer boat, Hob Ballard, with four loaded cars, is aground in the middle of the river between Coal Grove and Ashland. Freight cars are being transferred over the bridge at Kenova.

Sunday's rain was general up the Ohio Valley and tributaries, but not sufficient to cause much of a change in the streams. It will take a good downpour of several days to bring a coal tide.

While the river is low the Wharves and Ferries Committee of Council is taking advantage of it and repairing the grade, and when they get through we will have as pretty a river front as any town in the Ohio Valley.

The little lowboat Cricket, which has been chartered by Capt. Christian of the U. S. Snagboat E. A. Woodruff, now at the bank at Ashland, is doing low-water snag pulling. She is now blasting rock from the channel at Russell.

The Louisville and Evansville Mail Company contracted with Ed. Howard to build a new five feet wide-wheel boat 25 feet long, 36 feet beam and 6 feet hold. She will take the place of E. G. Ragon in the Evansville trade and be up to date in all her appointments. She will be fast.

The White Collar line will run no more boats up the river until there is a rise. The Charles B. Pearce and the M. P. Wells will not discontinue the river-trippers. They will not go above Kinney bar, but will transfer passengers to the steamer Candor either at Vanceboro or some point below. Each boat will carry a lighter, and Captain Edgington believes it will be possible in this manner to tide over existing difficulties. The Wells was on the Kinney bar for forty-four hours during her last trip.

TWO PICTURES OF DEMOCRACY.

THE NEW FORCE BILL.

Editorial Courier-Journal May 1, 1895.

"We republish this morning from the issue of The Courier-Journal for Friday, February 11, the Goebel Election Bill in full. The statement that The Courier-Journal has not published it is as false as the statements relating to us usually are. The pretense that we are afraid to publish it is answered by the act itself. It is a simple machine for turning over all elections in Kentucky to a centralized despotism at Frankfort, consisting of three Commissioners, to be elected by this Legislature, and having absolute power to determine who shall hold office and who shall not during their four years term of incumbency. This is not only usurpation of power. It is revolution in its broadest sense. It is not merely a force bill. It is a radical despotism. It disfranchises every voter in the state whom the Triumvirate at Frankfort, or their satraps in the counties, see fit, or find it needful, to disfranchise. At one fell swoop it abolishes free elections in Kentucky. If any man doubt this, there is the bill before his eyes. If he dispute it, he proclaims himself equally a conspirator and a falsifier. Nothing worse than this—more shameless, barefaced and absolute—has even been suggested in all the annals of Reconstruction, radicalism or misrule, in any age or any country. If the people of Kentucky submit to it, then they are a race of slaves, and will merit all the woes and ruin it brings them, including the heralding of their names as slaves, and the proud name of the old Commonwealth as a by-word to the ends of the earth."

THE NEW DEMOCRACY.

Editorial Owensboro Messenger, February, 1900.

"The white, property-owning, respectable people of Kentucky are going to control the Government of this Commonwealth now and hereafter, and they are going to legislate some respect for law and public decency into the heads of 2,500 arrogant money-bags and their satellites and hangers-on, who have chosen to affiliate politically with 75,000 ignorant Negroes and as many more vicious and red-handed mountaineers. The struggle for supremacy is about over, and the end will prove in this state, as it has in other states, that only the people who are capable of good government will be permitted to govern."

The Chamberlain Literary Society organized among the students of Center College, Danville, has elected Philip Harbison of this city secretary and Morgan Bruce Page of Glasgow.
